Don't Look Now!

That's right- don't look now but you are about to catch the spirit. As you read through the 1988 edition of The Oak you will find yourself becoming more and more aware of what Glassboro State College is all about and we, The Oak staff, think you are going to like what you are about to discover. So, get comfortable, turn off the stereo, and turn the page. However, if by some chance you do catch the spirit of the "Boro" don't say that it was without warning. Good luck!

President Of Glassboro State College

The Class of 1988 - my class:

You started here two months after I became the 5th president in Glassboro State history. You always will be "my class." I have taken great pride in marching with you through our freshman, sophomore, junior years, and now, your graduation.

As the years go on, and you spend countless hours turning the pages of this book remembering the college, the events, and, most of all, the people who helped shape your life, I hope that you will look back with fondness.

No one knows what the future holds for any of us pictured in this book. But, I sincerely hope and pray that the members of the Class of 1988 - my class - will find happiness. I thank you all for allowing me to grow along with you during our four years together.

Sincerely,

Herman D. James
President

SAB

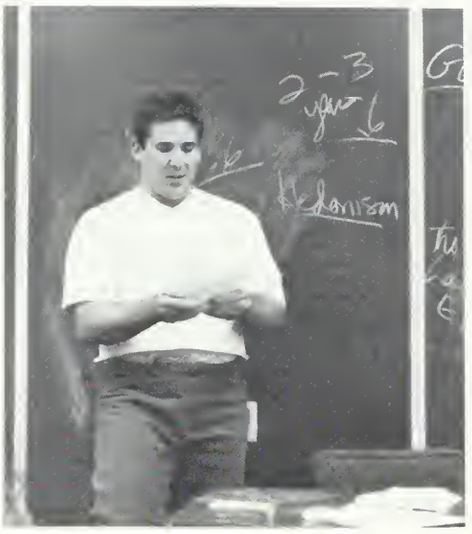

No semester would be complete at Glassboro State without a weekend event to celebrate it. This year, "Autumn Fest '87" brought great entertainment to the campus.

Jeanette Kerstetter, special events chairperson of the Student Activities Board (SAB) along with the entire organization coordinated Autumn Fest. Various events were sponsored by the Resident Student's Association (RSA) along with the classes of 1988, 1989, and 1990.

SAB's weekly movie kicked off the weekend festivities with "Little Shop of Horrors."

Thursday night was a big night for comedy and fun. The Class of 1990 supplied the comedy with their own version of "Family Fued" held in the Student Center Pit. From "Survey Says" down to their own Richard Dawson (Dennis Lehr of Student Life and Development) it was a huge success. "Families" from fraternities, classes, and faculty battled it our out for the largest total of points.

Going on at the same time was "Autumn night in the Rat." Music was provided by a popular band on campus, M.K. Ultra.

Friday afternoon things were moved outside. Hundreds of students gathered on the patio of the Student Center to listen to the sounds of bands made up of fraternity members and other students at G.S.C. Nearby, behind Mimosa, the "Autumn Fest Volleyball Tournament" pitted class against class and Greeks against faculty.

Topping off Friday's events was the Night Owl which was host to three top comedians and plenty of dance music.

Saturday brought "Goofy Games" sponsored by the Class of 1989, which took place on the GSC football field. Competitions of egg and spoon races, water balloon football, and a tug-of-war were all included in the event. Teams were supplied by SAB, SGA, and faculty.

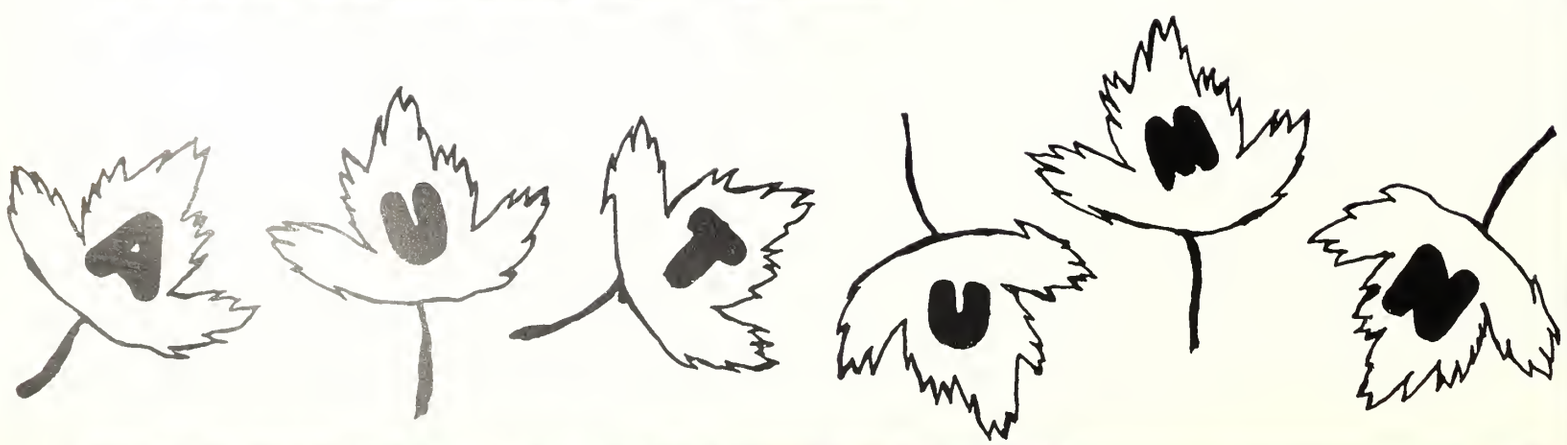

Continuing on the idea of silly games, a "Giant Twister" game was held in the Rat Saturday night.

Autumn Fest '87 closed on Sunday with "Hall Wars" staged in the back of Mimosa. Residents played each other to determine the best residence hall on campus.

The Finale was a performance by the Royal Lichtenstein Circus. It was a complete one ring circus with monkeys, dogs, birds and a pony. The circus players entertained a captive audience with a combination of stories and traditional circus acts like trapeze, juggling, and balancing acts.

The Big Day

It was the end of one era and the beginning of another. Joined by President James and many friends and family the senior class of GSC finally became graduates.

As the anticipation filled the front lawn of Bunce, tears filled the eyes of the seniors as they reflected back and looked ahead to days after graduation. The graduates sat at attention listening to speeches and taking in some advice for the future.

The most moving of all the speeches was given by class president Heather Cahill. Cahills speech borught back fond memory's of the years spent at GSC as well as gave many hopes for the future.

Lip Sync '87 . . .

Lip Sync contests, GSC's version of Puttin' on the Hits. The Resident Student's Association sponsors this big event once during each of the semesters. The Lip Sync is a huge draw attracting over 600 every time. The participants in the show were vying for cash prizes. They came out with their fake guitars and all were dressed and made up to look like today's pop music stars. There were a wide variety of acts ranging from Marvin Gaye (the raisin) to the Pointer Sisters from the Who to the Beastie Boys. Dennis Lehr from Student Life and Development was the host and when the smoke cleared the winners were Aerosmith and Run DMC lip Syncing "Walk This Way"

SUPPORTS

This year's charity event, Project Santa, made more money than it has in recent years. The money raised went to a charity known as Hystiocytosis-X. Rebecca Popp and her dedicated committee worked hard to make Project Santa something the entire GSC community could be proud of. The week began with the annual Tree Lighting Ceremony. Following this was the largest money maker of the week, the Celebrity Auction. The Class of '90 took charge of the event and sold items such as beer signs, various sports memorobilia and a trip for two to Disney World. Local celebrities of all kinds showed up for the auction. A beautiful pair of Eagle cheerleaders were there, along with the Bud Mand and America's favorite Party Animal, Spuds MacKenzie. Not to be out shown by a dog, President Herman James auctioned off a one hour lunch engagement with himself to O'Henry's. Other events of the week included the Class of '91 Talent Show and a Night Owl Christmas Party. During the afternoon hours there was a Christmas Bazaar around the Pit while in the Pit the Class of '89 sold pictures with Rudolph. Project Santa got the campus into the Christmas spirit and in the process raised the spirit of those inflicted with this rare blood disorder.

WGLS FM 1987-88

WGLS FM is not just any other club . . . it's members have to keep the station on the air 20 hours a day, seven days a week. And it's not just G.S.C.'s radio station; it's Gloucester County's station as well. Because of this, a lot of dedication and work is required of its members.

But the work pays off because the station is a training ground for bigger and better things. Many WGLS alumni have found their way to the airwaves of stations across New Jersey and outside of the state. WGLS offers a wide variety of new and alternative music, but that's not all. The station provides news and information that G.S.C. students and Gloucester County residents can't get anywhere else. The sports department has thorough coverage of all Glassboro State's events as well as Gloucester County news. There's also "Campus Call-In," a talk show which examines various campus related issues each week.

The station is completely run by its 70 to 80 student members from a variety of majors. Station members are looking forward to the proposed new building for WGLS which will move the station closer to the rest of the Communications Department. WGLS is currently located in the basement of Savitz Library.

Thousands Rock Esby

Festival '87 was far from an ordinary week. Tommy Conwell & The Young Rumblers came to GSC and gave an energetic performance. The Young Rumblers lead by the outstanding Tommy Conwell played to a full house at Esby Gym. From their first song to their last the crowd went wild.

The Smithereens, who were also scheduled to perform could not make it on time, therefore The Young Rumblers had to pull out all the stops and perform longer than expected. The crowd did not mind, they couldn't get enough of the electrifying sound.

SAB's Night Owl

GLASSBORO

The 1987 Homecoming weekend transformed the Glassboro campus into a giant "silver screen." In the spirit of Hollywood's 100th Anniversary, every event was held with a specific Hollywood classic in mind. The King Kong Gong Show, a Casablanca Rat Party, or the Towering Inferno Bonfire would make any movie director proud.

The annual G.S.C. vs. Kean football game is always a highlight of Homecoming. Glassboro will have to try harder in 1988 however, Kean was just too much to handle this year.

Another highlight was the King and I Pageant which showcased Glassboro's most outstanding students. This year's Academy Award Winners were Frank DeMarchi and Renai Ellison.

Homecoming 1987 was a huge success. Students, faculty and also hundreds of parents contributed to a weekend full of spirit and pride for Glassboro.

Greeks Lend A Helping Hand

Greeks on campus use their time wisely, by helping various national and local charities. The Greeks help out to raise money by selling anything from balloons to pumpkins.

Each week, Greek organizations can be found in the downstairs lobby of The Student Center selling their items "It is something we can all help out with in a positive way," says one Kappa Lambda Psi sister, who does doesn't mind using her time this way.

If there is a good cause, you can bet they'll be Greeks around to help it out.

What do you need to chase the winter blues away? A happy snowman and a week of fun filled events. S.A.B. and S.G.A. teamed up once again to entertain the Glassboro campus.

Beginning the event was the traditional Koffee Haus in the Pit and the S.A.B. Wednesday night movie.

After that there were games that all could enjoy like miniature golf or the Glassboro version of the Dating Game appropriately entitled the Roomate Game. One game that was taken a little too seriously was the S.G.A. vs. Faculty basketball game. Unfortunately for the faculty, S.G.A. was victorious.

There were also nights of club action throughout the week. Seniors could enjoy themselves at the 99 Days 'Till Graduation party, while the Rat also hosted Open Mike Night with comedian Billy Garan, and live band "Picture This".

For those a little younger at heart, there was a bus trip to the Philadelphia Zoo and a cartoon festival to end the week long entertainment.

The winter blues stayed away at least a short while longer this year at Glassboro State.

"Stretch, now the right arm." Sound familiar? To the girls above it does. The Panhellenic Association, composed of national sororities on campus, performed aerobics for two hours to help raise $650 for the American Heart Association.

"Dance for Heart", a community service project for Panhellenic, had 75 participants. Panhellenic is comprised of approximately 130 members from the following national sororities: Delta Zeta, Alpha Epsilon Phi and Sigma Sigma colony.

Fulginih Gives G.S.C. Good Name

On August 14, 1987, Anthony J. Fulginiti, an Associate Professor at Glassboro State for eleven years, was nominated as the Outstanding Educator of 1987 by the Public Relations Society of America (PRSA). Fulginiti is active in both the New York and Philadelphia chapter of this organization, while also being the editor of Communications Briefings a communications newsletter, and co-author of the book Harnessing Desktop Publishing which was published this summer.

At Glassboro State, Fulginiti advises the Public Relations Student Society of America (PRSSA). This organization has made a positive name for itself on campus, but more importantly, members have built up a reputation on a national level by being named Outstanding Chapter in 1986. Fulginiti also has made campus-wide contributions such as the workshop on "Promoting Successful Programs Through PR" which he presented on September 23, 1987.

Anthony Fulginiti was honored on November 9, 1987 at the Awards Luncheon in Los Angelos of the PRSA National Conference. Accompanying him were members of PRSSA who were also taking part in the conference.

The Whit Receives Silver For Its 50th Anniversary

The Whit has been in the process of a slow climb back from . . . somewhere. Wherever it was, it wasn't Journalism Land.

The recovery started in 1986-87, when the paper moved away from the "New York Post" look. In the second semester advertising revenues were collected, something which hadn't been done for the previous 16 months at all, and was infrequent for many years before that.

This year The Whit has replaced the old cluttered masthead with one that echoes the very first. And this is only appropriate, as this is the The Whit's 50th Anniversary. In that time we have been a lot of things, from a "puff" paper to a rag, but we've always been here.

On March 1, 1988, the exact date of our 50th anniversary, The Whit was notified that it a had won the Silver Medal in the New Jersey Press Association student journalism contest. We can only hope to get better, but we're sure to be here. See you in 1988-89!

Special thanks to Carl Burrowes and Larry O'Keefe, The advisors from Mount Olympus.

Life In The Fast Lane

How did Glassboro men's track and field team follow up last year's winning season? By winning their 13th consecutive NJAC Championship title, they proved to be just as competitive as the previous year's team.

Head Coach Oscar Moore was hopefull at the start of the season that they would once again win the championship. He was also confident that he would have All-American runners at the Division III Nationals.

Jason Mouring, a junior, was one of the All-Americans. He Finished 3rd in the 110 HH and 3rd in the indoor HH.

Scott Costello, the second All-American, is also a junior. He finished 6th in the 10,000 m race.

Other conference winners were Michael Perry, Kyle Bradby, Bob Friedel and (captain) Dominick Tabbachino.

Dominick, who is now a senior, had this comment about the 1987 season, "Even though it was a year for strengthening the team, we were able to pull together for a championship title."

What does the future hold in store for this young but competitive team? Coach Moore is expecting a strong group of freshmen and transfers to carry on the winning tradition.

Women's Track And Field

Rigorous Practice Pays Full Time Dividends

Following a similar schedule as the men's track and field team, the 1987 women's track and field team faced tough competition. Their schedule included relays at Hampton, Georgetown, Rutgers, and Penn.

At the end of the season the girls were able to gain third place at the New Jersey Athletic Conference Championships.

If Coach Dawn Shilling was happy with last year's softball team then she must have been even happier with the '87 team. Their record was improved to 27-13 and they were able to make the NJAC Championships as well as the NCAA Regionals.

The season was highlighted by finishing 3rd in the NJAC playoffs and 3rd in their region.

The team's captain, Laura Russo, a senior, was selected to the NJAC softball first team.

The team also had three girls selected to the 2nd team All Region-Mid Atlantic. Laura Russo, outfielder, was the team's leading batter. Diane Ebbeson, a junior, played in the outfield and started in every game. Also selected was freshman, second baseman, Stephanie Stratoti. Stephanie's batting average was second to Laura's.

If the team keeps progressing the way it has; Glassboro's softball team should be able to capture a championship season within the near future.

Juhl Takes 6th In Nationals

It was another winning season for Coach Wackar's 1987 golf team. They finished with a record of 5-2. In addition to this they also placed 2nd in two of the four tournaments that they participated in.

One outstanding highlight of the season was when veteran player O.J. Juhl finished 6th in the National Collegiate Athletic Association Division III Golf Championships. Juhl, a senior, was 6th out of 120 golfers from the area.

Other seniors that led the team were Tim Carlson and Dan McQuilken. Junior Mike Sorelle also had another outstanding season this year.

There are some promising freshmen on the way up so Coach Wackar should have nothing to worry about for the 1988 season.

A special congratulations to all of those who went way out of their way to earn the honor of graduating. Let it be juggling a job, a family, or both attending classes was more than a task, keeping up with the work was more than a challenge and earning a degree was more than a reward - it was a triumph. To all those night owls - CONGRATULATIONS!

LOOK NOW!

That's right - look now at what Glassboro State College is all about. Unfortunately, not all of the true essence of GSC was put into the 256 pages that you are now holding. Most of what this school is all about has to be lived and not read. However, we THE OAK staff, did our best to capture the events of the year but it is up to you to recall the memories that surrounded the events. So, if you happened to catch the spirit of the "Boro" you can't say that we didn't warn you. But, after all, it really isn't a bad thing to catch and it's even a better thing to have been part of. To the Class of 1988- CONGRATULATIONS!

Welcome To G.S.C. . . .
